Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 16, 2015, Professional Diversity Network, Inc. (the “Company”) and Matthew B. Proman, formerly the Company’s Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer (“Mr. Proman”), mutually agreed that Mr. Proman would resign from his executive officer positions at the Company and would resign from the Company’s board of directors. The effective date of Mr. Proman’s termination was July 16, 2015. In connection with his termination, the Company and Mr. Proman entered into a Separation Agreement and Mutual Release of All Claims, dated as of July 16, 2015 (the “Separation Agreement”).

Under the terms of the Separation Agreement, the Company will pay to Mr. Proman severance in an amount equal to the value of nine months of his annual salary. This amount will be paid in a lump sum of $206,250, less all legally required payroll deductions. The Company will also reimburse Mr. Proman for the amount of any premiums for individual medical insurance for Mr. Proman that are paid by Mr. Proman under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) during the nine-month period following the date of the Separation Agreement. Mr. Proman released and discharged the Company and its officers, directors, employees and agents from any and all claims, whether now known or unknown, which Mr. Proman now has or had based upon or arising out of any matter occurring or existing at any time up to and including the date of the Separation Agreement. The Company likewise released and discharged Mr. Proman from any and all claims, whether now known or unknown, which the Company now has or had based upon or arising out of any matter occurring or existing at any time up to and including the date of the Separation Agreement.

Mr. Proman also agreed to provisions in the Separation Agreement prohibiting him from, for a period of one year following the date of the Separation Agreement, (i) disparaging the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or any of its or their products and services, directors, officers, employees or other agents, (ii) competing against the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (iii) soliciting the termination of any employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and (iv) interfering with the relationship between the Company and its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and their customers, on the other hand. The Separation Agreement provides that in the event that Mr. Proman breaches his obligations under the foregoing provisions, then as liquidated damages he will forfeit any amounts otherwise owed to him under the promissory note, dated September 24, 2014 (the “Note”), issued by the Company to Mr. Proman in the original principal amount of $445,000 in connection with the closing of the Company’s merger transaction (the “Merger”) with NAPW, Inc., of which Mr. Proman held all outstanding equity interests. As of the date of the Separation Agreement, $445,000 of unpaid principal remains owing under the Note. As additional liquidated damages, Mr. Proman would also forfeit all of his rights to acquire shares of the Company’s common stock upon the exercise of any warrants or options held by him as of the date of the Separation Agreement. As of such date, Mr. Proman is the holder of a warrant to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company’s common stock for $4.00 per share, of a warrant to purchase 131,250 shares of the Company’s common stock for $10.00 per share and of options to purchase 183,000 shares of the Company’s common stock at $3.45 per share.

Under the terms of the Separation Agreement, the Company also reaffirmed its obligation to keep the resale of the 5,110,975 shares of the Company’s common stock originally issued to Mr. Proman as consideration for the Merger (the “Merger Shares”) registered under its shelf registration statement on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-201341) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Company also agreed to register the resale of the Merger Shares on any shelf registration under the Securities Act filed by the Company subsequent to the expiration of the currently effective shelf registration statement and to register the resale by Mr. Proman of the shares of common stock underlying Mr. Proman’s warrants and stock options. Under the Separation Agreement, the Company has also granted to Mr. Proman a co-sale right with respect to his Merger Shares such that at any time that the Company proposes to sell shares of its common stock in a private placement or public offering, Mr. Proman would have the opportunity to participate in such sale by causing one of his Merger Shares to be included in the sale with each share of common stock the Company proposes to sell, at the price per share at which the Company will be selling its shares.

The Company has also agreed to release Mr. Proman from the provisions of the registration rights and lock-up agreement, dated September 24, 2015 (the “Lock-Up”), among the Company, Mr. Proman, Star Jones and Christopher Wesser that would otherwise prohibit him from selling the Merger Shares prior to September 24, 2015. The Company will use its best efforts to assist Mr. Proman in connection with the sale of his Merger Shares.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) Reference is made to Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K. The disclosure contained in Item 1.01 with respect to the resignation of Mr. Proman as an executive officer and as a director, in each case in connection with the entrance by Mr. Proman and the Company into the Separation Agreement, is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02. Mr. Proman's decision to resign as director was not as a result of any disagreement with the Company relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

Professional Diversity Network, Inc. Announces Resignation of Matthew Proman

CHICAGO, July 22, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Professional Diversity Network, Inc. ("PDN") (NASDAQ: IPDN), a developer and operator of online networks and technologies that provide access to employment opportunities for diverse professionals in the United States, announced today that its COO and Director, Matthew Proman, has resigned his employment and his Board seat in order to pursue other ventures.

"In 2007 I founded the National Association of Professional Women and developed it into the largest and most recognized women's association in the country. NAPW continues to deliver value to its members through over 200 local chapters, an online networking platform and value added services for its members," said Matthew Proman. Proman continued, "As founder of NAPW, I am extremely proud to have built the organization into what it is today, knowing I have changed hundreds of thousands of professional women's lives, both socially and professionally for the better. My decision to merge NAPW and Professional Diversity Network clearly was in the best interest of NAPW and its members. This merger has given the members of NAPW the resources to continue to flourish and strengthen for years to come through PDN's technology and public platform. Although in some ways I am saddened by my departure from NAPW, I feel it's time for me to move on. I feel confident that I have left the company in good hands and that NAPW will continue to flourish and drive shareholder value."

Jim Kirsch, PDN CEO, affirmed, "PDN has never been stronger. Through our acquisition of NAPW we created synergies that cannot be denied and are now beginning to be fully realized. We have experienced strong revenue growth, enormous user growth, and a true integration of two dynamic companies. I cannot thank Matt Proman enough for all he contributed to this process, and all of us at PDN wish him the best in all his future endeavors."
